

Calvinism

People often use the acronym TULIP to help them remember the five main ideas which summarize the teachings of John Calvin, one of the great Reformation preachers, and the man for whom the Calvinist Cadet Corps was named. For each of the five points of Calvinism, read the verses shown, then summarize in your own words what the verses say. Next, use a reference Bible, concordance, and/or commentary to find another verse that states a similar idea from the Bible. Finally, write a sentence or two that applies the point to your life.
